Very charming house located in Valle del Sol, above Guadalmina Alta, just a couple of minutes drive from Guadalmina Golf Club or the shopping center of Guadalmina, as well as from San Pedro. This super cute house consists of a single level building, built in the year 2000 in a rustic style, and offers a living room with fireplace, a country style kitchen with a separate pantry, a spacious master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a little terrace, and another bedroom and separate guest bathroom. On the other side of the inviting courtyard terrace there is another building which houses the covered carport/garage and two utility room. Those utility rooms could easily be converted into a third bedroom.

The garden is gently sloping and consists of plenty of fruit trees: avocados, mango, oranges, mandarins. And you also have your own swimming pool. This is a perfect little country house to live in the whole year for a small family and we highly encourage viewing to experience it for yourself!
