Nestled on a corner plot in close proximity to the prestigious Los Naranjos Golf Club, this remarkable villa effortlessly combines elegance with functionality. The moment you step inside, you'll be welcomed by a grand foyer that leads you into the expansive living room. This space is bathed in natural light and offers breathtaking panoramic views of the valley and the Mediterranean Sea, creating a truly awe-inspiring ambiance. To the left of the hallway, you'll find a convenient guest toilet, a thoughtful addition that enhances your overall comfort. On this same level, a generously proportioned master bedroom awaits, complete with its own spacious en-suite bathroom. This villa boasts a total of 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, providing an abundance of space for both your family and visiting guests. The inclusion of a guest toilet further underscores the attention to detail.

For those who appreciate the culinary arts and enjoy hosting family gatherings, this villa offers not one, but two kitchens, in addition to a dedicated dining area. Versatility is key, and this property offers a total of three living rooms, allowing you to create diverse spaces for relaxation and entertainment.

Your practical needs are also well catered to with two to three garages, ensuring ample space for your vehicles and storage requirements.

This property represents more than just a home; it embodies a lifestyle that seamlessly blends comfort, convenience, and luxury.

Don't miss the opportunity to make it yours.
